

User Guidelines

You are a guest of The ROC at SSFBC. You are responsible for the care of our Recreation Facility during your use. This includes cleaning and putting it back into the condition in which you found it. You agree to reimburse SSFBC for the actual cost of repairing or replacing any damage that occurs to the building or equipment.

You acknowledge and agree that you have read SSFBC's core values and beliefs, which are available at ssfbc.org. You also acknowledge that The ROC at SSFBC is operated exclusively for Christian purposes and you and your group will respect SSFBC's core values and beliefs and will not make statements, engage in conduct, or conduct activities while at the ROC that would be inconsistent with or detract from SSFBC's core values and beliefs.

For safety purposes, the following items are not be permitted at The ROC at SSFBC:

- Alcohol: including beer, wine, wine coolers, mixed drinks, etc.
- Tobacco or Marijuana, including cigarettes, vapes, e-cigarettes, pipes, cigars, chewing tobacco, etc.
- Illegal drugs of any type and description, regardless of use.

Responsibility or liability for any injury is not assumed by SSFBC. The use of facilities and equipment will be totally at the risk of group members.

You will be restricted to the use of the areas which you have reserved. Other areas will be off limits.